

BOURNE VALLEY MOVIES

The most eagerly awaited film of the year is with us in March. Already laden with BAFTA awards and, at time of writing, firm favourite for a hatful of Oscars, "The Kings Speech" really does need no introduction and has been a box-office smash. Starring Colin Firth, Helena Bonham-Carter and Geoffrey Rush, it tells of King George V1's mastery of his stammer. This will surely fill the hall, so we advise getting your tickets early.

The showing will be at the Vernham Dean Millennium Hall on Wednesday, 16 March 2011 at 7.30 pm (bar open 7pm). Tickets, priced at £5, can be purchased in advance at Hurstbourne Tarrant post office and the George PH or £5.50 at the door.

In April, we have "Red", memorable, if for nothing else, for Helen Mirren industriously operating a machine gun. More next month.
