

Use of Audio Equipment

Audio Equipment

The main hall has an inbuilt audio amplification system that is available to Hirers under the following Terms and Conditions that are in addition to the General Terms and Conditions applying to the Premises.

1. Payment of the appropriate hire rate (see Hire Charges) and lodging with the Booking Manager of a security payment (see Hire Charges) against the handing back of the equipment in as good a condition as at the start of the period. (Note: in the event that any loss or damage exceeding that amount the Trustees reserve the right to claim from the hirer any excess amount).
- 2. That use of the equipment is restricted to those who have received formal instruction and that access to and control of the equipment remains under the supervision of the Hirer at all times.
3. Any associated equipment provided by the Hirer is fully compatible with the audio equipment and in good working order. The Hirer is to ensure that all associated equipment meets electrical safety standards and is operated appropriately.
4. The Hirer takes responsibility for ensuring that they meet any copyright conditions and indemnifies the Management from any consequences for failing to do so.
5. The Hirer is responsible for ensuring that any age restrictions are enforced.
6. That all audio and other material is lawful and appropriate for the premises and does not bring the trustees into disrepute or conflict with the licensing authorities.
- 7. The Hirer is responsible for preventing any undue noise. In particular, it is a requirement that all sound from the audio equipment shall be suitably muted and all doors and windows closed after 11.00 pm to avoid disturbing neighbours.
8. The hirer must note that non-adherence to the General Terms and Conditions including cessation of music at the agreed time of the event will result in the loss of the security bond.
9. The Hirer is responsible for ensuring that sound levels within the building are appropriate and will not cause temporary or permanent hearing damage.

Hearing Loop

The main hall is fitted with a hearing loop linked to the audio amplification system. This is available to Hirers subject to the above terms and conditions and at no additional charge.

Additional equipment

Projector equipment installed in the hall is available for use with the audio system. This is available to Hirers subject to separate terms and conditions and at a reduced charge when the audio equipment is also hired (see Hire Charges).
